

Song's Name: Havens of Learning

School Name: Elements Daycare

Location: Katoro, Tanzania

Composer: Salu Ngedu (@mwana_ai)

Verse 1)

In Tanzania's heart, a school so grand,
Where dreams take flight, hand in hand,
Elements Lake Zone, our joyful place,
A haven of learning, a warm embrace.

(Chorus)

Together for Excellence, we proudly sing,
With hearts full of hope, let our voices ring,
Secure and thriving, we'll reach for the sky,
In our vibrant community, we'll aim oh so high.

(Verse 2)

Sunrise to sunset, we laugh and we play,
Learning and growing, each and every day,
With minds full of wonder and hearts full of grace,
We're crafting a future that shines like the sun's embrace.

(Chorus)

Together for Excellence, we proudly sing,
With hearts full of hope, let our voices ring,
Secure and thriving, we'll reach for the sky,
In our vibrant community, we'll aim oh so high.

(Verse 3)

In halls of wisdom, where knowledge abounds,
We explore, we question, new insights are found,
A civilised generation, where respect takes its place,
Hand in hand, we'll create a world of grace.

(Chorus)

Together for Excellence, we proudly sing,
With hearts full of hope, let our voices ring,
Secure and thriving, we'll reach for the sky,
In our vibrant community, we'll aim oh so high.

(Verse 4)

Colors of creativity, in each stroke and line,
Imagination blooms, like a garden divine,
We'll paint the world with dreams anew,
For in every child's heart, possibility comes true.

(Chorus)

Together for Excellence, we proudly sing,
With hearts full of hope, let our voices ring,
Secure and thriving, we'll reach for the sky,
In our vibrant community, we'll aim oh so high.

(Verse 5)

Elements Lake Zone, a beacon so bright,
Guiding us forward, with wisdom and light,
With courage and kindness, we'll make our stand,
Spreading love and learning across this land.

(Chorus)

Together for Excellence, we proudly sing,
With hearts full of hope, let our voices ring,
Secure and thriving, we'll reach for the sky,
In our vibrant community, we'll aim oh so high.
With laughter and unity, our journey we start,
Hand in hand, young and free, we'll capture each heart,
Elements Lake Zone, our home and our pride.
